

Judaism Classes

Explore Judaism Classes- Are You Curious?

Explore Judaism classes will be held in various New Jersey towns sponsored by the New Jersey Rabbinical Assembly.

The topics to be covered are 1- Believing –God and Torah
2- Doing - An Approach to Mitzvot and 3- Belonging- Ahm Yisrael.

This class is for anyone wishing to deepen their Jewish knowledge base or for those who are considering conversion. Interfaith couples are welcome.

The three session class and is free and all that is asked is that you call the host synagogue and say you are coming.

No synagogue affiliation is required. The class is taught by the Synagogue Rabbi. He or she can help you figure where you might continue your Jewish education.

Fall 2009 classes are being scheduled now.

The following is a list of upcoming classes. Additional classes will be added shortly. Please check back or e mail ellen.nesson@gmail.com to inquire about the location of the nearest class.

Rockaway, NJ at White Meadow Temple (973) 627-4500
taught by Rabbi Ben Adler
Mondays Oct. 5, 12, 19 at 8:15-9:15

Fair Lawn at the Fair Lawn Jewish Center (201) 797-4349
taught by Rabbi Ron Roth
Tuesdays, Sept. 29, Oct. 6, Oct 13 – check with synagogue for time

Springfield at Temple Beth Ahm Yisrael (973) 376-0539 taught by Rabbi Mark Mallach
Saturday Aug. 29, Sept, 12, 26 and Oct. 3 (4 sessions)
at 10:15 am

Perth Amboy at Congregation Beth Mordecai (732)442-2431
taught by Rabbi Melinda Zalma
Thursdays Oct. 1, 8, 15 at 7:00 pm – 8:15